Should a player require a footwear exception for medical reasons, the player must provide a letter on official letterhead from the player's health care provider before the tournament (and keep a copy of this letter in their possession at all times, available for review by a referee, if requested).

Scotch Doubles Competition

General

- The dress code will be in effect and enforced at all times when on the tournament floor.
- Any player found in violation of the dress code during match play will be given 15 minutes to correct the violation and return to the match site. If not back in 15 minutes, the player will lose one game of the match and will lose one additional game for each additional 5 minutes until he/she returns. Important International Tax Information

The United States Internal Revenue Service requires that winners have a U.S. taxpayer identification number or an application for a U.S. taxpayer identification number in order for them to receive a prize check from the BCAPL.

If foreign players do not have a U.S. taxpayer identification number (TIN), they may apply for one directly with the Internal Revenue Service of the United States Department of the Treasury. The BCAPL will also have applications available in Las Vegas. The application requires that the applicant provide supporting documentation to establish their identity and country of citizenship.

Required supporting documentation is evidence of alien status and identity. Examples of documentary evidence supporting alien status (i.e. non-U.S. citizenship or nationality) are a foreign passport, a foreign birth record or a current document issued by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) or a Social Insurance Card. Examples of documentary evidence supporting identity include a driver's license, identity card, school record, medical record, marriage record, voter registration card, military card, passport or a current document issued by the INS. One of the documents presented needs to include a photograph of the applicant.

If a winner has not applied for a TIN, but has the necessary supporting documents with them, we will have applications available and will help players complete them on site.

When a winner has either a tax identification number or a completed application for a number, the BCAPL can issue a prize check to them. The IRS requires the BCAPL to withhold 30% of winnings and forward the withholdings to the IRS unless the recipient is from a country that has a tax treaty with the United States.

If your country has a tax treaty with the United States, there is a form from the United States Department of the Treasury by which you may claim exemption from withholding. The BCAPL will have form 8233 available in Las Vegas. When the recipient completes this form, the BCAPL will be able to pay 100% of the prize money in accordance with the terms of the respective country's tax treaty with the United States.

If your country does not have a tax treaty with the United States, the BCAPL is required to withhold 30% of the player's winnings. The BCAPL must remit the 30% to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, and the player may file a tax return with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (using their taxpayer identification number) and may be eligible for a refund of the 30%.
